

An Ode to Clevedon

By Pam Soper

*This town is full of Poets,
Of that you can be sure.
There's Tennyson & Coleridge
And a whole lot more.*

*These very famous writers
Have carved their names with pride:
Southey, Hallam, Thackeray,
It cannot be denied.*

*To recognise these wordsmiths
Poets' Walk was named, you see.
A place to honour famous men,
That overlooks the sea.*

*We hope that everyone who comes
To Clevedon sees it all.
And tells their friends how much they've learned
With facts they can recall.*
